THE ICEMAN GOES.

In days of old,
When heat was cold,
And bats were flying away,
An iceman bold
Would forth go lay
A load of snow and fair,
With diamonds in her half—
That cuts no ice.
I've got the price,
She's got the care.
So what care I
Though night be nigh,
I'll own the town or die!"

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect for the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNAL.

White streams—rain;
Blue streams—show;
With black clouds—will warmer grow;
If black clouds beneath—cold will be;
Then black shows—no chance.

Blue.

Fruit Season

is at hand, and having my usual arrangements with the fruit dealers, I am prepared to supply the freshest and most delicious fruit-growers—but in Kentucky and Ohio, the hands of their entire crop, my facilities for furnishing the early crop,

STRAWBERRIES
and other fruits, both to stores and individuals can be supplied. All orders will be received by express and paid on the market on same day they are picked. Send us in first class express boxes, and we will give to the filling of all orders. And don't overdo it, as the market is so large and fancy groceries and canned goods is the largest item in the market, and we are in reach of competition. My house is also headquarters for Fresh Vegetables, and a special attention given to the same. The Royal Perfector Flour has the lead, and my Blended Coffe has the best, and the best tea. Everybody invited to make my house headquarters when they come to the city.
